HYMN

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty

Praise to the Lord

The Almighty, the King of creation

O my soul praise Him

For He is thy health and salvation

All ye who hear, now to His temple draw near

Join me in glad adoration

Praise to the Lord

Who o'er all things so wondrously reigning

Bears thee on eagle's wings,

e'er in his keeping maintaining.

God's care enfolds all, whose true God he upholds.

Hast thou not known His sustaining?

Praise to the Lord, who doth prosper thy work and defend thee!
Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee;
Ponder anew what the Almighty can do
Who with His love doth befriend thee.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

CLOSING HYMN

God Will Take Care of You

Be not dismayed whate'er betide,
God will take care of you;
Beneath his wings of love abide,
God will take care of you.

Refrain:

God will take care of you,
Through ev'ry day,
O'er all the way;
He will take care of you,
God will take care of you.

Through days of toil when heart doth fail,
God will take care of you;
When dangers fierce your path assail,
God will take care of you. [Refrain]

All you may need he will provide,
God will take care of you;
Nothing you ask will be denied,
God will take care of you. [Refrain]

No matter what may be the test,
God will take care of you;
Lean, weary one, upon his breast,
God will take care of you. [Refrain]

Tell Me Something Good! (A Service of Gratitude)

On Wednesday, September 16th at about 4:30 am, our world was set a little off kilter here in Fairhope. But we have seen God's hand and there have been glory sightings all along the way. So, we want to open the sanctuary for a brief time this coming Wednesday at Noon and 6 pm to gather God's people. We will sing a song of praise and then give the opportunity for individuals to share some stories of God's goodness they have experienced. Your pastors will be present at the close of the service to pray with any individuals who have need. We ask you to wear masks and observe social distancing as you are seated in the sanctuary. Reservations will not be required. Our SWIFT and student ministries community groups are both meeting from 6:30-7:45pm this Wednesday, however, we know many in our Children and Student Ministries have been serving in our community this past week and we want to hear their stories and how their hearts have been touched. If you have a 5th-12th grader attending the Service of Gratitude, they can either leave the service early to attend their program or wait until after the service to do so. Children 4th grade and younger will attend the full service with their parents/caregivers.

Dear Friends,

As proclaimed last week, the way out of Egypt is hard. This is also true for the realities of pandemic, prejudice, brutality, bias, addiction, aggravation, greed, gluttony and whole list of other forms of oppression. None of us are at our best right now. These stories of Moses cover it all, however, and set the stage for the cross of Jesus Christ. Our suffering is not always a problem to be fixed, but rather an experience to be endured in faith. This is the witness of scripture. Therefore, as we approach the richness of the biblical tradition, our confession is pretty simple. When our plans fall short and our patience worn thin, we need help. We need understanding. We need each other. We need God.

The church has never been closed, mind you, but we know that this season of “online only” on Sunday mornings has been a real disruption to the sacred rhythm of our lives. So for those who will enter our doors today, we say, welcome back! And to those who will be joining us remotely, rest assured that you are still every bit part of the body of Christ here at Fairhope UMC.

From now to the end of October, our worship services will be digging in to the call of Moses and the challenges of navigating what was known literally and figuratively as the wilderness of Sin (Ex. 17:1). With all of the obstacles that we see presently before us—for our families, our church, our community, our nation, and in the world—I can think of no better image to inform and inspire us than the memory of that story which began with a burning bush.

Do you suppose that flame is still going? How does God keep it, or us, from burning on without burning out?

In this series, we will be remembering the God who hears the cries of His children and works with them to deliver them up and out from the oppressive conditions of Egypt. We will glean certain insight from the scriptures on how to make decisions in the midst of an otherwise divisive culture, and how to handle the perpetual grumbles and groans that so often come with community. We will also reimagine our calling as Christ’s followers here at Fairhope UMC and dare to renew the pursuit of our own mission for the transformation of the world.

I am excited about what God may reveal to us during this time. God knows we could all use a fresh Word of hope. There is nothing about our experience of 2020 that would suggest to us that this 3rd quarter of the year will be easy. Even so, I believe that the Lord has collectively equipped us for this season (whether we know it or not) and will continue to prepare us for whatever it is that the Spirit would have us to do and to be. As he promised Moses...Here I am! So I believe that “I AM” is with us...on purpose...ready to deliver!

I am glad that you have chosen to worship with us. Let us hear the good news together.

Come What May—Here I Am!

Darren

TELL ME SOMETHING GOOD! (Service of Gratitude)

I have seen so many children from our church serving during the aftermath of Sally! It warms my heart! Be sure to read in this bulletin about the special Service of Gratitude this Wednesday in the sanctuary. Have a conversation with your kids about how they served those in need after the hurricane. Allow them to express how it felt to be the hands and feet of Christ. Then, encourage them to share their story on Wednesday night. I really hope to see your families there! Here are a few pics of some of the kids!
