CALL TO WORSHIP

Psalm 19

Weary and overwhelmed, we gather.

God's holy word revives us.

And drive us from unholy living,

Turn us toward your holy light.

HYMN

Christ is Made the Sure Foundation

Christ is made the sure foundation, Christ the head and cornerstone;
chosen of the Lord and precious, binding all the church in one;
holy Zion's help forever, and her confidence alone.

To this temple, where we call thee, come, O Lord of Hosts, today!
With thy faithful loving-kindness hear thy people as they pray, and thy fullest benediction shed within its walls I.

Here vouchsafe to all thy servants what they ask of thee to gain;
what they gain from thee forever with the blessed to retain,
and hereafter in thy glory evermore with thee to reign.

Laud and honor to the Father, laud and honor to the Son, laud and honor to the Spirit, ever three and ever one;
one in might and one in glory, while unending ages run.

CLOSING HYMN

The Old Rugged Cross

On a hill far away stood an old rugged cross, the emblem of suffering and shame;
and I love that old cross where the dearest and best for a world of lost sinners was slain.

Refrain:

So I'll cherish the old rugged cross, till my trophies at last I lay down;
I will cling to the old rugged cross, and exchange it some day for a crown.

O that old rugged cross, so despised by the world, has a wondrous attraction for me;
for the dear Lamb of God left his glory above to bear it to dark Calvary. [Refrain]

In that old rugged cross, stained with blood so divine, a wondrous beauty I see, for 'twas on that old cross Jesus suffered and died, to pardon and sanctify me. [Refrain]

To that old rugged cross I will ever be true, its shame and reproach gladly bear;
then he'll call me some day to my home far away, where his glory forever I'll share. [Refrain]

SPECIAL ALTAR SETTING FOR LENT:

We hope you enjoy the special altar setting for Lent. Here is an explanation of some of the symbolism you will find there. The purple paraments will be used all during Lent, even on communion Sunday, as a symbolism of our individual and corporate penitence. The bare branches symbolize Abraham's and Sarah's barrenness and the rocks symbolize their solid faith in God's promises. The broken jar symbolizes our brokenness in Lent and the water is how God fills us up and revives us...and reminds us of our solidarity with Christ in our baptism. The crown of thorns reminds us of the foretelling of Jesus' death that is present in this season. The scattered gold coins focus us on today's scripture from the second chapter of John and reminds us of what is scattered and overturned in our own lives. As you enter this sacred space, we encourage you to meditate on these symbols and let them lead you into a meaningful time of worship.

Return to the LORD, your God, for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love, and relents from punishing.

--Joel 2:13

Create in me a clean heart, O God, and put a new and right spirit within me. Do not cast me away from your presence, and do not take your holy spirit from me. Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and sustain in me a willing spirit. Then I will teach transgressors your ways, and sinners will return to you.

--Psalm 51:10-13

At a time when it is tempting to isolate our hearts as well as our bodies, how important it is to hear the Holy Spirit calling us back into relationship. During a season in which we have wrestled with our reality and grappled with our grief, where do we turn for hope? What are we to do with ourselves and with our situation?

The Word is return.

Return to God, who is gracious and merciful. Though our sins may distance us, God has a plan for our reunion. It is time for a new heart, a willing spirit, and thus, a new life altogether.

With its customary emphasis on truth-telling and self-examination, this season of Lent invites us to once again return to God in worship, in study, in service and sacrifice, in confession and in pardon. The message is clear and simple: when we return to God, we are restored by God.

Do not cast me away from your presence we pray.

I will not, says the Lord. I will not, I have not, and I shall not. I cannot return to you, however, because I never left you. Thus, for this relationship to be restored, you will need to return to me. That is the call. Return...and be restored...with joy!

We are glad that you have returned to worship with us today. Welcome home.

Let us repent, rejoice, and be glad...

Darren

LENTEN STUDIES FOR ADULTS

Five Means of Grace: Experience God's Love the Wesleyan Way by Elaine Heath

This six-week study continues on Monday afternoons, 12:05-1:15. Facilitated by Dr. Darren M. McClellan, this is the "Grace and Grub Group." Drop in and bring your own brown bag lunch. No registration required—come as you will!

Weekly studies focus on: Prayer, Searching the Scriptures, the Lord's Supper, Fasting, and Christian Conferencing. John Wesley called these means of grace "instituted," meaning the spiritual practices Jesus himself participated in and encouraged his followers to do. For Wesley, these spiritual practices are seamlessly integrated with the practice of loving our neighbors well. A life of genuine prayer inevitably leads to a life of hospitality, mercy, and justice. Participants in this study will consider how the five means of grace are the ordinary channels that God uses to draw us into a fruitful relationship. Book available for $10.

Music Culture and Theology Class

Join Rev. Ontonio Christie for a six-week Music Culture and Theology Class. The five sessions of this study will highlight Lenten themes and explore them in connection with today's culture and music. No books necessary, Bring your Bibles! No registration required.

Are we saved by grace through faith alone as Paul wrote to the Galatians or are we required to live a life of good works like James outlines? Are the two books contradictory or complimentary? Facilitated by Kristin Capstraw.
